

Southern Delaware Intergroup of Alcoholics Anonymous (SDIAA) Frequently Asked Questions Handout

1. What is an Intergroup? “An Intergroup (sometimes referred to as a central office) is an A.A. service office established to help carry the message of Alcoholics Anonymous to a certain geographical area. It is a partnership among groups in a community — just as A.A. groups themselves are partnerships of individuals. An intergroup is established to carry out certain functions common to all the groups — functions which are best handled by a centralized office — and it is usually maintained, supervised, and supported by these groups in their general interest. It exists to aid the groups in their common purpose of carrying the A.A. message to the alcoholic who still suffers.” — reprinted from A.A. Guidelines, Central or Intergroup Offices with permission from A.A. World Services, Inc.
2. Our purpose is to support the individual A.A. Groups in Sussex County, Delaware in carrying the message to those individuals who feel they may have a problem with alcohol.
3. SDIAA is one of three intergroups in the Area 12 (Delaware General Service Assembly). We are a committee of volunteers made up of representatives from the A.A. groups all over Sussex County Delaware, and are directly responsible to those groups we serve.
4. What Does SDIAA Do?
  - ✓ Maintain a 24-hour Helpline - This line is answered 24/7 to respond to inquiries about meetings and A.A. in general for members and the general public.
  - ✓ Answer inquiries from the general public and individuals who think they may have a drinking problem, as well as field questions from treatment, court and medical professionals seeking information.
  - ✓ Establish local public information committees.
  - ✓ Publish up-to-date local A.A. meeting lists.
  - ✓ Maintain a website listing local A.A. meetings and relevant information.
  - ✓ Coordinate with the A.A. Groups in Sussex County to take meetings into various facilities (prisons, treatment centers, hospitals, etc.).
  - ✓ Cooperate with the local district committees and the Delaware General Service Assembly (Area 12).
  - ✓ Coordinate the efforts of intergroup committees.
  - ✓ Serve as a communications center for participating groups to keep groups informed about one another.
  - ✓ Order, sell and distribute A.A. Conference-approved literature

5. Who Runs SDIAA? The trusted servants, elected by the Intergroup Representatives (IGRs), supervise the operation of intergroup. These positions are chairperson, vice-chairperson, secretary, and treasurer. The chairperson also appoints committee chairs, with approval by the IGRs, to oversee the orderly administration of SDI. However, the groups, as represented by their IGR's, have the ultimate responsibility and authority. Further reading, see the Bylaws.

5.1. Officers: The officers of Southern Delaware Intergroup are elected by the Intergroup Representatives (IGRs). See the Bylaws: Article VI. The officers shall consist of a Chairperson, Vice-Chairperson, Secretary and Treasurer.

- Chair shall preside at all meetings of Intergroup and shall participate as an “ex officio” member of all committees. The Chairperson shall appoint all committees necessary to the orderly administration of the affairs of the association. Said appointments shall be with the approval of the representatives. Term of office shall be two years. Furthermore, the Chair shall be responsible for the preparation and presentation of the annual budget, said presentation to be no later than the January meeting.
- Vice Chair shall perform all the duties of the Chairperson when the Chairperson is absent for any reason. In addition, the Vice-Chairperson shall, under the supervision of the Chairperson, oversee any special committee assignments as designated by the Chairperson. Term of office shall be two years.
- Secretary shall keep correct minutes of all meetings of the Intergroup and be responsible for their safe keeping for his/her entire term of office. Term of office shall be two years.
- Treasurer shall be responsible for the financial records of all monies paid to Intergroup, or any committee thereof. The Treasurer shall issue an annual report (calendar year) providing categorized revenues and expenditures. Term of office shall be two years.

6. Standing Committees: The committee chairs are appointed by the Intergroup Chair, and are approved by the membership. They are not elected offices. Term of office is two years and expires with the election of a new Chair. Further reading, see the Bylaws. Current standing committees are:

6.1. Accessibility — the purpose of the accessibility committee is to help make Alcoholics Anonymous in our area accessible to every member who desires it by raising awareness within the A.A. community of the challenges faced by those with special needs such as mobility, vision, hearing etc. when accessing meetings, and building capacity within the A.A. community to offer meetings, special functions, and service opportunities to members with special needs.

6.2. Answering Service — these volunteers are often the first contact a newcomer has with Alcoholics Anonymous. Southern Delaware Intergroup

- maintains a 24-hour answering service, with over 200 volunteers ready to help the newcomer with any questions they may have about A.A., or for helping to find a meeting in the area, or just to talk to someone who needs to speak to another alcoholic.
- 6.3. Archives — the mission of the Archives Committee is to collect, preserve, and protect a variety of original material containing information of permanent historical value relating to the history of A.A. in Sussex County.
  - 6.4. Bridging the Gap/Treatment — connects alcoholics transitioning out of treatment facilities with A.A. members who bring them to their first A.A. meeting outside the institution. This essential Twelfth Step service helps connect sober members of Alcoholics Anonymous with people in treatment facilities who are interested in going to an A.A. meeting upon their release. A.A. experience suggests that attending meetings regularly is critical. You could be the first contact a newcomer has with A.A., by taking them to a meeting and introducing them to the fellowship.
  - 6.5. Corrections — this committee takes meetings into Sussex County correctional facilities & carries the A.A. message to the alcoholic who suffers. Security application required — See website to download. Note: You must completely fill out pages 9 through 16. Bring completed form to the next intergroup meeting.
  - 6.6. Crest — sponsored by the Sussex Community Corrections Center (SCCC), the Crest Substance Abuse Treatment Program is a six month residential treatment program for drug and alcohol abusers. It is based on the concept of a therapeutic community, a total treatment environment, for offenders with a history of substance abuse. Security application required — See website to download. Note: You must completely fill out pages 9 through 16. Bring completed form to the next intergroup meeting.
  - 6.7. CPC — the Cooperation with the Professional Community (CPC) provides information to professional groups and is the liaison with hospitals, institutions, rehabilitation facilities and detox centers.
  - 6.8. Liaison Area 12 — serves as the conduit between Area 12 and intergroup, representing SDI at area assemblies and area committee meetings.
  - 6.9. Literature — this committee has available, at cost, conference-approved literature to A.A. groups and members in order to provide the A.A. message to as many people as possible.
  - 6.10. PI — the Public Information Committee provides literature, contact information, and answers questions about A.A. at various venues and health fairs and alcohol awareness programs.
  - 6.11. Special Events — this committee holds events that provide fellowship, unity and recovery to the groups and members in the local area.
  - 6.12. Website — this committee aims to promote unity, service and recovery by providing up-to-date technology and a responsive, user-friendly website for any platform, browser, operating system & device. Activities include managing the content of the SDIAA website, managing the meeting directory database, as well as investigating and implementing new technologies for the intergroup when requested.

- The Where and When committee a sub-committee of the Website/Tech committee, this committee coordinates with the Website Committee to ensure that all updates to our published meeting schedule (“Where & When”) are accurate. Currently, the schedule can be downloaded to print.

“Traditionally, general service committees and intergroups/central offices have performed different functions. Central offices provide local services; general service committees maintain the link between the A.A. groups and the A.A. General Service Board by means of the Conference. So these two separate but vital service structures coexist in many areas in mutual cooperation and harmony.”
Reprinted from The AA Service Manual 2018-2020 Pg. S42.

“Unity is the glue that holds the intergroup/central offices and general services together, but it is communication that jumpstarts mutual cooperation and harmony — vital both in reaching suffering alcoholics and in being attuned to the needs of those who are recovering in A.A.”

8. What’s the main difference then?

Intergroups are service entities that focus exclusively on local needs (e.g. publishing local A.A. meeting lists, answering inquiries about A.A., receiving, arranging, and following up Twelfth Step calls, establishing local public information committees) and are not part of A.A.’s larger decision-making/service structure.

9. Did you know? Bill W. helped write an intergroup pamphlet, which was published by the Intergroup Committee of New Jersey in March 1949. On the back page of the pamphlet, Bill wrote:

“Every A.A. member wants every alcoholic in the world to have the chance that he has had. Every A.A. member wants unity for our movement. Every A.A. member wants the good opinion of medicine, religion and the general public. We know we must have these things or the new man may never get his chance.”

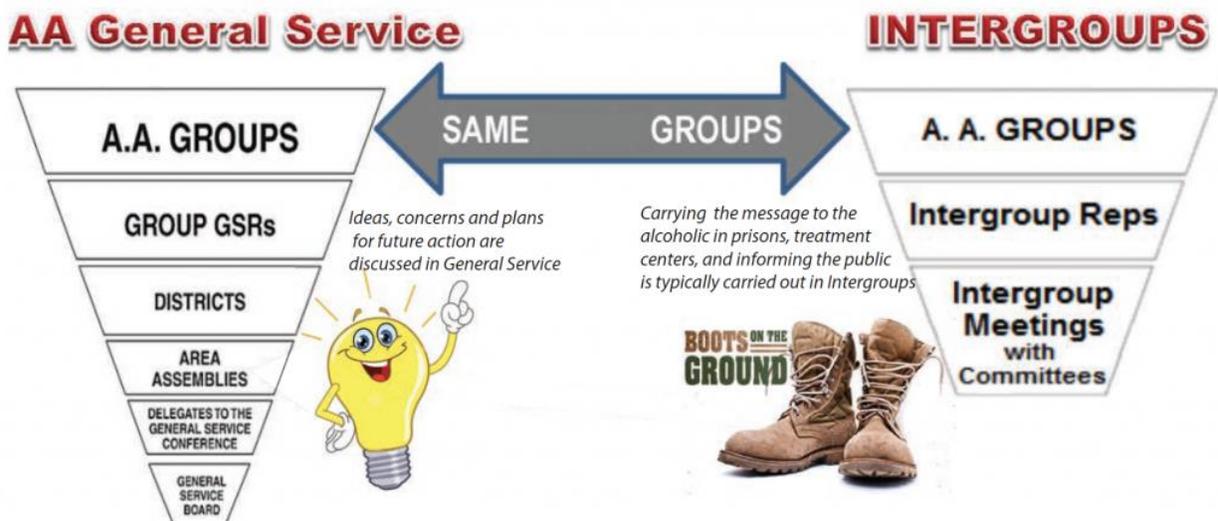

“The Intergroup associations are the best insurance we can have that our life lines to the hundreds of thousands yet to come will never break or tangle. Let us always be generous. Let us warmly support Intergroup.”

10. Structure of A.A.: Everything in A.A. begins at the group level. Groups elect officers to serve, not to govern, for limited periods. Individual groups may elect a General Service Representative (GSR) who takes part in district meetings where they are kept up-to-date on A.A. activities and topics of interest.

- a) In Sussex County there are four districts, each representing a geographic region. These are 1, 2, 3, and 13. The district meetings are chaired by the District Committee Member (DCM), and groups work together at the district level to further the primary purpose of Alcoholics Anonymous in their community.
- b) The DCM conveys the group conscience of their district's A.A. members to the area committee, which for us is the Delaware Area General Service Assembly (Area 12).
- c) The Area Assembly's main responsibility is to elect a Delegate to represent them at the General Service Conference (U.S./Canada) in New York, which is where the group conscience of all the groups in North America is heard.

11. Relationship of Intergroup to the A.A. Structure. Central/intergroup offices and general service area committees are complementary, rather than competitive, A.A. operations. Both exist to help insure A.A. unity and to fulfill A.A.'s primary purpose of carrying the message. The main difference is that an intergroup is a service entity that focuses exclusively on local needs (e.g. maintaining local meeting lists) and is not part of A.A.'s larger decision-making/service structure. You'll notice they don't appear in the upside-down triangle. But there is a connection between the two as shown in the picture below.

DCM's, GSR's, Area 12 representatives and all delegates are welcome to attend the intergroup meetings as guests. They are asked to share reports from their organizations, but they do not participate in the voting.

This handout is an encapsulation of the workings of the SDIAA and Intergroups. For more detailed information, please see the Southern Delaware Intergroup website: www.sussexaa.org.

Central or Intergroup Offices

The A.A. Guidelines below are compiled from the shared service experience of A.A. members throughout the U.S. and Canada. They also reflect guidance given through the Twelve Traditions and the General Service Conference. In keeping with our Tradition of autonomy except in matters affecting other groups or A.A. as a whole, most decisions are made by the group conscience of the members involved. The purpose of these Guidelines is to assist in reaching an informed group conscience.

WHAT IS A CENTRAL OR INTERGROUP OFFICE?

A central or intergroup office is an A.A. service office that involves partnership among groups in a community — just as A.A. groups themselves are partnerships of individuals. A central/intergroup office is established to carry out certain functions common to all the groups — functions which are best handled by a centralized office — and it is usually maintained, supervised, and supported by these groups in their general interest. It exists to aid the groups in their common purpose of carrying the A.A. message to the alcoholic who still suffers.

FUNCTIONS OF A CENTRAL/ INTERGROUP OFFICE

A.A. experience has demonstrated that central/intergroup offices are helpful, particularly in populous areas. There are nearly 700 central/intergroup offices throughout the world, performing vital A.A. services. These constitute a network of service outlets and A.A. contacts to help carry the A.A. message.

The following suggestions outline the basic services a central/intergroup office might offer:

- 1) A.A. Inquiries — By providing an Alcoholics Anonymous listing in the local telephone directory and on appropriate websites, the central/intergroup office may receive inquiries from those seeking help. They will refer the caller to a nearby A.A. group, where sponsorship may be arranged, or have a twelfth stepper contact them. Many local A.A. offices now have their own websites.
- 2) Office Facilities — The central/intergroup office can maintain a conveniently located office in which paid workers and/or volunteers coordinate local A.A. services.
- 3) Meeting Lists and Other Literature — At regular intervals, the central/intergroup office may publish and distribute up-to-date lists of meetings and other information about local A.A. services. Many intergroup/ central/intergroup offices sell A.A. Conference-approved literature for the convenience of local groups.
- 4) Information Exchange — The service office may function as a clearinghouse for the circulation and exchange of information among all the A.A. groups in the community. In this same connection, a logical function of the central/intergroup office is to provide “exchange” meetings, where group program chairpersons meet regularly to exchange meetings with other groups.
- 5) Local Committees on Public Information (P.I.) and Cooperation with the Professional Community (C.P.C.) in cooperation with district and area P.I. and C.P.C. committees — The central/intergroup office is an ideal contact with those in the community seeking information about A.A. Thus, A.A.’s relations with the public and professionals in the alcoholism field are often handled through the cooperation of general service committees and central/intergroup offices. To avoid duplication of efforts and other difficulties, good communication between all parts of A.A. is paramount. A.A. Guidelines and Workbooks on P.I. and C.P.C. are available on G.S.O.’s website at www.aa.org.

6) A.A. in Correctional and Treatment Facilities — The central/intergroup office can maintain contact with local groups in correctional facilities and treatment facilities, offering literature and prerelease A.A. contacts and arranging for A.A. speakers and visitors to meetings. When there is a corrections or treatment committee for this purpose, the service office may assist it through close cooperation with local hospitals and prisons.

Central/intergroup offices handling institutional contacts can find A.A. Guidelines and other service material on aa.org for shared experience in providing these services.

7) Local A.A. Events — An A.A. central/intergroup office is a logical body to manage the details of an annual dinner, picnic, or convention, if the participating groups wish it.

8) A.A. Bulletin or Newsletter — The preparation of a publication for periodic distribution to A.A. groups is often a function of the central/intergroup office.

9) Accessibilities — Many central/intergroup offices carry information on groups that are wheelchair accessible, or which may provide American Sign Language (ASL) interpretation for members who are Deaf. Some offices have equipment or materials for communicating with alcoholics who have visual and auditory challenges, those who are housebound or chronically ill, those who are living with the effects of brain damage or stroke, and others who may have less visible challenges.

MAKING A GOOD BEGINNING

Like many well-meant ventures in A.A., central/intergroup offices sometimes suffer because they are conceived and established without advance planning. The unhappy and damaging experiences of such ventures indicate that a few questions should be raised before a central/intergroup office is opened.

One question should concern actual need. Is there a sufficient number of groups in the community to justify opening a central/intergroup office? Is there a widely-expressed need? Has the potential impact on other local A.A. offices in the community been discussed? Are the groups willing and able to support such a service office financially? Have the groups been consulted as to whether such an office could address their specific service needs? Will they cooperate with and support a new office’s aims and purposes? (If, after such consideration, an office seems impractical or not necessary at the time, a telephone answering service may fill the service needs of the community. If additional information is needed, G.S.O. has Guidelines on A.A. Answering Services.)

Questions should also be raised about proposed locations for the central/intergroup office and the personnel and equipment needed. It's sometimes tempting to consider moderately priced or free facilities supplied by agencies or organizations working in the field of alcoholism or in other fields. But it's better to forgo this short-term advantage if there's any likelihood that A.A. would lose its independent status in the bargain or appear — in the public mind at least — to be sponsored or controlled by the other organization.

The question also comes up whether to buy property or a building. A.A. traditionally does not own property, "lest problems of money, property and prestige divert us from our primary purpose." Experience also indicates that it is not fair or wise to commit future A.A. members to financial obligations for which they have not initially assumed responsibility, so renting a facility has proved best. It may also appear attractive to consolidate the central/intergroup office with the facilities and operations of a club. But the risks and pitfalls involved in this are almost too numerous to mention here. One reason for discouraging this is the possibility that the problems of operating the club and the service office will become intertwined, to the detriment of each activity. An even more important point is the need for keeping a clear separation between club operations and A.A. group activities; any strong identification with a club may impair a central/intergroup office's ability to serve the groups.

A central location for the office is usually desirable, if finances permit. It's also well to take in possible future needs at the same time the original quarters are being considered; sometimes it's possible to rent facilities in buildings where adjoining rooms may become available later. Sufficient room should be provided for copying, mailings, committee meetings, and consultation with newcomers. Since a central/intergroup office is intended to provide services for all A.A. groups in a community, experience indicates that it is best for the office not to give or rent space to any one group for meetings. The decision, however, is really up to each office, acting autonomously.

GETTING UNDER WAY

Once some of these preliminary matters have been satisfactorily disposed of, the road is clear for the formal organizational work. Here's a suggested plan that has worked well.

Each group in the community is asked to send both a representative and an alternate representative to a special meeting to form a central/intergroup office committee (also called a steering committee in some places). In large communities, it is sometimes necessary to divide the group into zones, with a zone representative serving several groups. Once formed, the committee takes over the responsibility for the project and outlines its aims and purposes for approval by the participant groups. Such an outline might cover these points:

- 1) Listing of all groups in the community that want to participate.
- 2) A reminder that financial support is voluntary and not a condition of membership (in keeping with A.A. tradition).
- 3) A clear explanation that responsibility for the maintenance of the service office rests with the groups. Therefore, each group should name a central/intergroup office representative and an alternate to serve a specified term as the connecting link between the group and its central/intergroup office.

- 4) A summary of the functions of the central/intergroup office and an explanation of how it will be staffed and operated.
- 5) A discussion of how the service office will handle such vital matters as inquiries from newcomers, relations with the press, and similar duties.
- 6) Assurance that the service center will be operated in keeping with A.A.'s Twelve Traditions.

GROUP REPRESENTATION AT A CENTRAL/INTERGROUP OFFICE

Service centers usually have no authority on their own account; they derive it from the participating groups. Central/intergroup offices are essentially A.A. service entities, "directly responsible to those they serve," as described in Tradition Nine. Local group representatives reflect the groups' conscience in the service center operations. In most communities, a central/intergroup office committee or steering committee is set up to handle the administrative activities of the service office. The steering committee holds regularly scheduled meetings and deals with general policy and plans. Periodically, the steering committee reports to group representatives on central/intergroup office problems and accomplishments. It is extremely important to keep a two-way flow of information going between the central/intergroup office and groups.

STAFFING THE INTERGROUP

Most A.A. central/intergroup offices now employ at least one paid full-time secretary or manager, as well as A.A. volunteers — members who respond to Twelfth Step calls at the office, answer the telephone, and often carry out other service office duties. Large offices may also have paid clerical workers on the staff to assist the full-time person. Although the principles involving certain paid employees of A.A. service centers are now widely known in A.A., it is still helpful to review the appropriate A.A. Tradition at the time of opening a new service office. As it states in Tradition Eight: "Alcoholics Anonymous should remain forever nonprofessional, but our service centers may employ special workers." It should be clear from this that the paid secretary functions as a paid employee of the central office — not as an A.A. member — during duty hours and is hired largely on the basis of professional skill.

Regarding compensation for paid workers, Bill W. writes in "Twelve Concepts for World Service" as follows: "We believe that each paid executive, staff member, or consultant should be recompensed in reasonable relation to the value of his or her similar services or abilities in the commercial world." Also, Social Security and certain insurance benefits are provided, as well as sick leave and vacations. It is suggested that the central/intergroup office full-time secretary also be accorded a vote as well as a voice on the steering committee. This policy is successfully followed by A.A. World Services, Inc.: The staff coordinator — a paid employee as well as an A.A. member — also serves as a director and thus has a vote on policy matters.

SUPERVISION — MAKING THE OFFICE SERVE

It's plain that the success of the central/intergroup office requires community-wide agreement on matters concerning administrative responsibility and authority. The steering committee should reach an early consensus on this; if necessary, they should explain it in the bylaws or some other set of guidelines. For, while it's difficult to establish hard-and-fast rules and then live by them, it's at least reasonable to clarify such matters as the functions of the office and the extent of the paid secretary's authority and duties.

Some decisions can be entrusted to the paid secretary. In other cases, it may be wiser for the steering committee to maintain full oversight of many matters. In any case, it's important that problems get an early review by someone who is authorized to deal with them and can solve them as quickly as possible. Otherwise, the service office operations are bound to suffer.

Special attention might be given to the following matters in the operation of the office:

1) Fair distribution of Twelfth Step calls. However tempting it may be to assign follow-up calls to those individuals and groups that seem especially willing, the Twelfth Step work is something all the groups in the community should be encouraged to share. But it's also important that calls are distributed according to the location of the group; that is, newcomers should usually be put in touch with the group nearest to them.

2) After closing hours, A.A. volunteers or a telephone answering service — carefully chosen — should handle incoming calls. (See Guidelines on A.A. Answering Services.)

3) Authority and responsibility should be related. It is unfair to assign certain responsibilities to a paid secretary or volunteer without giving commensurate authority.

FACING FINANCIAL RESPONSIBILITY

Incorporation: By its very nature, a service office involves making financial commitments quite different from those usually encountered in the operation of an A.A. group. Office facilities have to be leased; a secretary must be hired and paid; office supplies must be purchased; the telephone bill has to be paid regularly. To adequately take care of these responsibilities, it is generally wise to incorporate separately special facilities, such as a service office, which require money or management.

Since group purposes, local conditions, and state laws vary, it is suggested a local lawyer be consulted regarding such incorporation. At the same time, the following points might be emphasized: If possible, eliminate the name "Alcoholics Anonymous" from the corporate title. (This name is the sole property of A.A. as a whole.) Limit the activities of the corporation to the one locality only. Expenses create a need for financial responsibility that should be recognized at the outset; if properly understood and dealt with, it never need become a source of trouble.

Sometimes, however, central/intergroup office ventures have gotten caught up in disputes over money, authority, and like matters — thus becoming less effective in carrying the A.A. message. It's not always clear why these troubles have come up, but often it's been because the proper functions of a central/intergroup office were not clearly explained or understood, or there was some disregard of the principles in A.A.'s Twelve Traditions.

Suggested methods of financing a central/intergroup office:

1) Group Collections. A.A. groups participating in the financial support of the service office may choose to make their contributions by setting aside fixed sums from their regular collections. Many groups pledge a fixed amount, which is paid periodically. This assures the central/intergroup office of a regular income, and certainly helps it to plan the best means of meeting its own obligations.

Occasionally there are groups that do not support a central/intergroup office. In these cases, the spirit of contributing voluntarily, that prevails throughout A.A., applies. If groups can't or choose not to pay their share of the costs, they shouldn't be denied the services of the office.

2) Special Contributions. Some groups provide a special collection box or basket in a convenient place during meeting times, inviting members to contribute. In that same vein, A.A. members may make individual contributions, on a pledge or voluntary basis, directly to the service office. Also, many A.A.s make contributions to their central/intergroup office in celebration of their A.A. birthday or anniversary. Some offices accept electronic Seventh Tradition contributions through their websites.

3) Sale of Literature. Many service offices publish their own meeting lists; others also produce introductory pamphlets explaining A.A. These can be sold at a slight profit to help defray office expenses. It is also possible to buy books from G.S.O. for resale at the retail price, the profit going to support the central/intergroup office. The Conference-approved literature catalog describes various discounts.

4) Special Events. Some service offices hold yearly banquets, conventions, and similar events, using the "profits" for support of the office.

For help in financial planning, the 1977 General Service Conference recommended that "a suggested prudent reserve... preferably be one to 12 months' operating expense, depending on local needs."

CENTRAL/INTERGROUP OFFICES AND G.S.O.

The common experience has shown that A.A.'s worldwide unity is best served if A.A. groups maintain their own separate contacts with G.S.O. Direct group contact with G.S.O. doesn't take the place of services provided by a local service office, but helps G.S.O. to keep in closer touch with all groups.

There are, however, some important areas of interest in which close contact between the central/intergroup offices and G.S.O. is not only desirable but necessary. Some central/intergroup offices, for example, like to be provided with New Group Information Forms so that newly formed groups can be immediately listed with G.S.O. These forms as well as forms for changing group information, are available on aa.org.

Groups should not assume that if they list themselves with a central/intergroup office they are automatically listed at G.S.O. New groups are encouraged to send a Group Information Form directly to the General Service Office, P.O. Box 459, Grand Central Station, New York, NY 10163, or emailing records@aa.org.

NEWSLETTERS OR BULLETINS

Newsletters or bulletins published by central/intergroup offices may include not only office news and events, but similar information about the groups and committees served by these offices (such as meeting times, openings of new groups, or changes of group meeting locations or officers). Frequently, material from A.A. literature is reprinted and discussed, and articles on subjects of interest to A.A.s also are published.

Experience indicates that, as in most A.A. service activities, it is prudent to make a committee (rather than one or two individuals) responsible for the format, planning, and content of the bulletin. Many local publications quote from A.A. literature such as the Big Book, the Twelve and Twelve, The A.A. Service Manual, and Conference-approved pamphlets. Any A.A. newsletter, bulletin, or meeting list is more than welcome to use this material. Please be sure to include the proper credit line in your publications, in order to insure that the copyrights of A.A. literature are protected.

After a quotation from an A.A. book or pamphlet, these words should appear: Reprinted from [name of book or pamphlet, page number] with permission of A.A. World Services, Inc.

More suggestions you might consider, based on local experience with A.A. newsletters and bulletins.

- Scheduling a "theme issue," centering on some aspect of the A.A. program and using excerpts from Conference-approved material (with proper credit) relating to the theme.
- Asking for and publishing letters from your A.A. readers.
- Carrying highlights of minutes from various committee meetings — central/intergroup office steering committee, institutions, public information, etc.
- Including committee financial reports and records of group contributions.
- Running occasional appropriate cartoons. (If these are from the A.A. Grapevine or Conference-approved pamphlets, please remember that illustrations, too, are copyrighted, and the proper credit should accompany any of these that are used.)
- Running a "Calendar of Events" feature.

- Conducting a subscription campaign (perhaps making announcements at group meetings), to build paid readership.

COMMUNICATION

Communication is the key to working together — Central or Intergroup Office and General Service Area Committee or the District Committee and the General Service Office of A.A. In 1990 the General Service Conference stressed the importance of communication and recommended that delegates establish and maintain contact with offices in their areas to share Conference information and assure that central/intergroup offices have a voice in the Fellowship through their existing service structure.

Try to find out what is going on by getting together from time to time with corresponding committees in your area. It is important to share ideas and discuss activities so as to avoid duplication of effort. It is not important who does the work (the General Service Committee or the Central/intergroup office Committee in your area) but that the work gets done — that help is there for the next alcoholic who needs us and our Fellowship.

Central/intergroup offices and general service area committees are complementary, rather than competitive, A.A. operations. Both exist to help insure A.A. unity and to fulfill A.A.'s primary purpose of carrying the message.

In 1986, the first A.A.W.S./Intergroup/Central Office Seminar was held to discuss questions on literature distribution, pricing and discounts, and to share ways to work together. Seminars are now held each year. Seminar history and information can be found at: www.icoaa.org.

For its own part, G.S.O. also seeks to keep central/intergroup offices well informed. As a regular policy, the G.S.O. newsletter, Box 4-5-9, as well as activity updates and A.A.W.S. Highlights, are sent to each central/intergroup office that lists itself with G.S.O. Therefore, it is important to remember to update office contact information. The staff member on the Group Services assignment is the liaison with central/intergroup offices. You may contact Group Services by calling (212) 870-3400 or emailing groupservices@aa.org.

GOOD LUCK AND SMOOTH SAILING

We hope these suggestions will help make your central/intergroup office venture a vital and fruitful addition to the A.A. activity in your area. These are suggestions only, and it's the spirit and cooperation behind the central office idea that will make it work.

If you are starting a new office please write to G.S.O.; your office will be added to the mailing list and you will receive a Central/intergroup Office Kit and some literature.

Your office will be included in the U.S. and Canadian Directories so that you may share A.A. experience with others and be available for any alcoholic seeking help.
